

Il-Mellieħha u l-għar ta' Kalypso

Hafna minna qraw jew raw fuq it-televiżjoni l-ġraja ta' Ulisse u l-Gwerra ta' Trojja. Din l-istorja tinsab fl-Odissea, li nkitbet xi seba' mitt sena qabel Kristu minn Omeru. Għal għaxar snin shah, il-Griegi assedjaw il-belt ta' Trojja mingħajr success, sakemm Ulisse ħareg bl-idea ġenjali li jinbena ziemel tal-injam u fih jinhbew xi għellieda Griegi. It-Trojjani daħħlu dan iż-ziemel ġewwa l-belt tagħhom u mal-lejl, is-suldati Griegi ħargu bil-moħbi minn ġoż-ziemel u fetħu l-bibien ta' Trojja fejn sabu lil shabbom bil-lest biex jidħlu u jirbħu l-belt. B'hekk, fl-ahħar, il-Griegi bdew jaħsbu biex imorru lura lejn pajjiżhom.

Imma mhux hekk l-imsejken Ulisse. Dan kellu jdum għaxar snin oħra sakemm jasal fil-għira ta' Ithaca, art twelidu. F'dawn l-ghaxar snin għad-dan minn hafna avventuri. F'waħda minnhom, waqt maltempata, il-mirkeb li kien fuqu spiċċa biċċiet u dan il-gwerrier għamel disat ijiem shah jgħum fil-baħar sakemm il-mewgħ tefgħu fuq il-għira ta' Oġiġa. Fl-Odissea, Ulisse jirrakkonta li “l-baħrin shabi kollha ntiflu u mietu; jien biss salvajt għax m'arblu sew tgħannaqt. Għal disat ijiem u magħħom disat il-jieli, thabatt mal-ħalel u c-cafcif tal-mewgħ; fil-ghaxar lejl, l-allat wassluni, fl-ahħar, fejn is-saħħara tgħammar f'għar fil-blatt.”

Din is-saħħara jew ninfa, Kalypso, żammet lil Ulisse magħha għal seba' snin shah ġewwa dan l-ġħar u wegħħidtu li ma kien se jonqsu xejn. Hafna jaħsbu li l-għira ta' Oġiġa hija l-għira ta' Malta jew Ghawdex. Allura l-ġħar ta' Kalypso jinsab x'imkien ġewwa l-gżejjer Maltin.

Fl-Odissea hemm deskrizzjoni ta' dan l-ġħar: “Madwar il-ġħar kien hemm siġriet iwarrdu, riħan, sebbuq u żnuber milli jfuħ u għasafar kbar ġo fihom kienu jbejt: kokk u isqra u ċawl sewdien li jgħix mill-ħut. Mgħarrsin ma' bieb il-ġħar kien hemm xi dwieli mgħobbija għeniegħed tqal tal-ġħeneb iswed u kien hemm erba' għejjun igelglu l-ilma msewqa sew bis-swieqi hdejn xulxin.”

U hija din id-deskrizzjoni li wasslet lil ħafna jaħsbu li dan l-ġħar jinsab fil-Mellieħha, sewwa sew fuq ir-riħ ta' Ġnien Ingraw. Rev. Loreto Zammit jikteb li “if we look at this romantic cave, we notice it is situated in a cliff face overlooking four fountains (springs)... water courses (widien) namely Wied Santa Marija, Wied Ferfer, Wied ta' Ġnien Ingraw (and) Wied ta' San Niklaw.” B'hekk Żammit qabbel l-erba' għejjun li semma' Omeru mal-erba' widien li jinsabu qrib l-ġħar u li kollha fihom nixxiegħat ta' ilma ġieri.

Kittieb ieħor li kien konvint li l-ġħar ta' Kalypso jinsab fil-Mellieħha huwa Ernle Bradford. Għalkemm fl-1963, huwa kiteb li “if I were to consider looking for Calypso's home on Malta, I would settle for somewhere on the western coast, perhaps in the region of Dingli or near the present site of Verdala Palace.”, fl-1972, wara żjara fil-ġħar tal-Mellieħha, huwa qal li “I was completely converted at first glance. Here was everything described by Homer. The cave was sheltered by a verdant copse of alders, aspens and fragrant cypresses, which was the roosting place of feathered creatures ... trailing round the very mouth of the cavern, a garden vine ran riot, with great bunches of ripe grapes: while from four separate but neighbouring springs, four crystal rivulets were trained to run this way and that.” Bradford qabbel id-deskrizzjoni tal-ġħar fl-Odissea ma’ dak li ra meta żar l-ġħar fil-Mellieħha u b’hekk ikkonvinċa ruħu li dak kien l-ġħar tan-ninfa Kalypso.

Il-veduta mill-ġħar ta' Kalypso

Fl-1804, fil-ktieb ‘Ancient and Modern Malta’, ta’ Boisgelin, naqraw li “The western division of the island (Malta) extends not further than Mellieħha port, near which there is a cave called The Grotto of Calypso.” Għalhekk l-idea li f’dan l-ġħar kienet tgħix Kalypso ilha teżisti mill-anqas aktar minn mitejn sena.

Kitba interessanti tal-1839, minn Thomas MacGill, tgħidilna li “Near the chapel of the Madonna of Mileha is a very fine grotto and near to it, a spring of icy cold water. Some insist that this is the famed grotto of Calypso, while others assert that the fabled grotto is at Gozo. The only way to reconcile this discrepancy is to suppose that her nymphship had what might be called, a town and a country residence: and that the miserable hole called her grotto in Gozo was where she retired to during summer months.” B’hekk MacGill ikkonkluda li, filwaqt li fix-xitwa Kalypso kienet toqghod fl-ġħar tal-Mellieħha, fis-sajf kienet toqghod Ghawdex ghall-frisk!

Rev. G. N. Godwin, il-kappillan tal-armata Ingliza, fl-1880, ukoll ittieħed jara dan l-ġħar u halla din id-deskrizzjoni tiegħu: “Calypso, the fair goddess with whom we were all so well acquainted in the days when we used to study our ‘Adventures of Telemaque’ is popularly supposed to have resided at Mellieħha. Homer, in the fifth book of the Odyssey, gives a glowing description of her grotto which is in truth a miserable cave. There is however a fine view from the hillside and from the grotto wells forth abundance of clear spring water which fertilises a large garden below.”

It-taraġ li jagħti għall-ġħar li jissemma minn Evans fl-1900

Fatt interessanti u li jgħidilna ħafna għaliex dawn il-postijiet marbuta mal-passat kienu bil-wisq aktar popolari u magħrufa fis-seklu 19 jinsab f'din il-kitba ta' Evans: “The people (of Mellieħha) are most obliging and only too ready to show you around, a small fee being generally looked for... Calypso’s caves are situated behind the village of Mellieħha and can be reached by ascending one of the streets running off the main road to the left. You can join the path crossing the valley and follow it till it bends round the high rock above the caves. The rocks have broken away and blocked up and destroyed several of the chambers. But the entrance stairways still remain and two or three compartments are intact. Below in the gorge are some pretty gardens and a clump of fruit trees.” Mid-dehra, xi Melliħin kienu jieħdu xi haġa tal-flus biex idawru l-barranin u turisti li xtaqu jaraw dawn il-postijiet u f'dak iż-żmien ta’ faqar, kull qatra kienet tgħodd!

Bradford ġareg b’idea differenti għaliex dawn il-postijiet kienu popolari f’Malta u f’pajjiżi oħra tal-Mediterran. Huwa kiteb li “Throughout the Mediterranean, most of these local aspirations date from no later than the 19th century, when the first waves of foreign visitors with classical educations began to descend on these shores. Your Mediterranean-dweller, be he Italian, Sicilian, Maltese, Greek or what you will, is only too happy to oblige inquiring visitors with tales appropriate to their demands. Very rarely can any of these stories be traced back earlier than the 19th century. This Mediterreanean habit of producing the right answer is not... entirely due to a natural duplicity. It is as much due to a genuine love of the native birth-place, a desire that it shall shine in foreign eyes and a kindly wish not to send the visitor away disappointed." Jigifieri ħafna minn dawn il-postijiet kienu jiġu vvintati min-nies tal-lokal biex jogħġibu l-barranin, xi kultant anke tort tal-imħabba li kellhom lejn il-lokalitā tagħhom, peress li xtaquha tidher aktar sinjura u sabiha f'għajnejn il-barrani. Ma ninsewx ukoll dik il-munita jew tnejn li min kien jieħu t-turisti f'dawn il-postijiet kien jirċievi.

Hu x'inhu l-każ, l-ġħar ta' Kalypso huwa parti mill-istorja tal-Mellieħa u ġħalhekk huwa importanti li ma jintesie. Missirijietna kienu kburin ħafna aktar minna b'dan il-ġħar tant li kienu juruh lil kull min kien iżur il-Mellieħa. Ġħalhekk aħna għandna wkoll illum nagħtu s-sehem tagħna biex dan il-post jiġi mfakkar u mħares bħala parti mit-tradizzjoni u kultura tagħna l-Mellieħin.
